College Board Review Reader Survey

To help us plan for future issues, will you please write the number of your answer to each of the questions below in the appropriate box on the answer card, detach and mail. Do not affix your name.

1. What is your age?
   1. Under 25
   2. 25-35
   3. 36-45
   4. 46-60
   5. Over 60
2. What is your sex?
   1. Male
   2. Female
3. Where do you work?
   1. College or university
   2. Public secondary school
   3. Private secondary school
   4. State or federal agency
   5. Educational association or private social services agency
   6. Business or industry
   7. Other
4. How many years have you worked there?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
5. What is your occupation?
   1. Administrator
   2. Admissions officer
   3. Financial aid officer
   4. Guidance counselor
   5. Teacher
   6. Student
   7. Other
6. In what part of the country do you live?
   1. Northeast
   2. South
   3. Midwest
   4. Southwest
   5. West
   6. Out of U.S.
7. How many years have you been reading the Review?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
8. How many years have you subscribed?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
   5. Not a subscriber
9. How would you rate the Review for appearance, readability and timeliness of coverage? (Use a scale of 9 to 0. 9=extremely readable, timely, etc.)
   A. Appearance
   B. Readability
   C. Timeliness
10. Please indicate on the answer card how you would rate the Review's coverage of the various areas listed below, and indicate your relative interest in these areas. (Use a scale of 9 to 0. 9=best coverage and greatest interest; 0=poorest coverage and least interest.)
    A. Admissions
    B. Adult education
    C. College Board activities
    D. Curriculum
    E. Financial Aid
    F. Guidance
    G. International Education
    H. Junior/community colleges
    I. Minority/poverty students
    J. Research in education
    K. Student attitudes
    L. Teaching
    M. Testing
11. Please list (title, author, or any other identifying designation) the articles you remember best from earlier issues of the Review (on answer card).
12. Comments: (on answer card)

College Board Review Index

This index lists articles, selected news items, and authors published in the College Board Review in issues No. 69 (Fall 1968) through No. 76 (Summer 1970).

Articles are arranged by major subject, with earliest articles under each subject heading listed first, and in the authors' index alphabetically by author. Articles covering more than one subject appear under each appropriate subject heading. (Thus, "How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss" is listed under Admissions and under Guidance.) News items are listed only once, under the most appropriate heading. Figures after each entry indicate issue and page numbers.

Previous indexes have been published in the Review as follows: for issues No. 61 through 68—69:34; for issues No. 54 through 60—60:26; for issues No. 48 through 53—54:30; for issues No. 36 through 47—47:32; for issues No. 24 through 35—35:25; for issues No. 1 through 23—23:450.

Articles, news items

Admissions

In Britain: an admissions clearinghouse plan that actually works, Geoffrey R. Thrush, 69:21

Must our admissions system punish talented music students?, Arthur Motycka, 69:26

How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss, William T. Allen Jr., 70:15

Admissions records aren't legally confidential, Maine court rules, 71:21

Transfer students: Who's moving from where to where, and what determines who's admitted?, Warren W. Willingham and Nurhan Findikyan, 72:4

An unseemly, desperate process, Donald R. Nickerson, 72:26

Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, William M. Eastman, 72:27

The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5

A call to college presidents: Please put an end to the admissions process rat race!, Richard W. Mecham, 74:14

Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions, 75:12

Is the admissions process really so selective?, Herbert B. Livesey, 75:22

How high schools can help in admissions, Simon J. Gormley, 75:24

Responses to 'Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions,' 76:4

Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, Warren W. Willingham, 76:6

Is the nonresident student being treated fairly?, Robert F. Carbone, 76:22

News items:

Midwest colleges get help in assessing foreign candidates, 69:4

Changes in admissions tests, 76:3

Advanced placement

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part I, Patricia Lund Casserly, 69:6

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part II, Patricia Lund Casserly, 70:18

Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, William M. Eastman, 72:27

Following through on advanced placement, D. Bruce Lockerbie, 75:25

College-level testing

This could be a new kind of college degree, Thomas S. Anthony, 74:16

News items:

How servicemen are scoring on CLEP examinations, 71:4

Nebraska University reports 800 CLEP 'consumers' yearly, 72:3

Libraries help CLEP, 75:26

Commission on Tests

The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5

Curriculum

Must our admissions system punish talented music students?, Arthur Motycka, 69:26

For the Board's English tests: What lies ahead?, Scott Elledge, 71:22

Could this financial aid plan help end student unrest?, William T. Hatch, 72:18

College curriculum design: the case for more student power, William B. Boyd, 74:7

College Board Review Reader Survey

To help us plan for future issues, will you please write the number of your answer to each of the questions below in the appropriate box on the answer card, detach and mail. Do not affix your name.

1. What is your age?
   1. Under 25
   2. 25-35
   3. 36-45
   4. 46-60
   5. Over 60
2. What is your sex?
   1. Male
   2. Female
3. Where do you work?
   1. College or university
   2. Public secondary school
   3. Private secondary school
   4. State or federal agency
   5. Educational association or private social services agency
   6. Business or industry
   7. Other
4. How many years have you worked there?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
5. What is your occupation?
   1. Administrator
   2. Admissions officer
   3. Financial aid officer
   4. Guidance counselor
   5. Teacher
   6. Student
   7. Other
6. In what part of the country do you live?
   1. Northeast
   2. South
   3. Midwest
   4. Southwest
   5. West
   6. Out of U.S.
7. How many years have you been reading the Review?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
8. How many years have you subscribed?
   1. 1 or less
   2. 2-4
   3. 5-8
   4. Over 9
   5. Not a subscriber
9. How would you rate the Review for appearance, readability and timeliness of coverage? (Use a scale of 9 to 0. 9=extremely readable, timely, etc.)
   A. Appearance
   B. Readability
   C. Timeliness
10. Please indicate on the answer card how you would rate the Review's coverage of the various areas listed below, and indicate your relative interest in these areas. (Use a scale of 9 to 0. 9=best coverage and greatest interest; 0=poorest coverage and least interest.)
    A. Admissions
    B. Adult education
    C. College Board activities
    D. Curriculum
    E. Financial Aid
    F. Guidance
    G. International Education
    H. Junior/community colleges
    I. Minority/poverty students
    J. Research in education
    K. Student attitudes
    L. Teaching
    M. Testing
11. Please list (title, author, or any other identifying designation) the articles you remember best from earlier issues of the Review (on answer card).
12. Comments: (on answer card)

College Board Review Index

This index lists articles, selected news items, and authors published in the College Board Review in issues No. 69 (Fall 1968) through No. 76 (Summer 1970).

Articles are arranged by major subject, with earliest articles under each subject heading listed first, and in the authors' index alphabetically by author. Articles covering more than one subject appear under each appropriate subject heading. (Thus, "How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss" is listed under Admissions and under Guidance.) News items are listed only once, under the most appropriate heading. Figures after each entry indicate issue and page numbers.

Previous indexes have been published in the Review as follows: for issues No. 61 through 68—69:34; for issues No. 54 through 60—60:26; for issues No. 48 through 53—54:30; for issues No. 36 through 47—47:32; for issues No. 24 through 35—35:25; for issues No. 1 through 23—23:450.

Articles, news items

Admissions

In Britain: an admissions clearinghouse plan that actually works, Geoffrey R. Thrush, 69:21

Must our admissions system punish talented music students?, Arthur Motycka, 69:26

How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss, William T. Allen Jr., 70:15

Admissions records aren't legally confidential, Maine court rules, 71:21

Transfer students: Who's moving from where to where, and what determines who's admitted?, Warren W. Willingham and Nurhan Findikyan, 72:4

An unseemly, desperate process, Donald R. Nickerson, 72:26

Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, William M. Eastman, 72:27

The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5

A call to college presidents: Please put an end to the admissions process rat race!, Richard W. Mecham, 74:14

Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions, 75:12

Is the admissions process really so selective?, Herbert B. Livesey, 75:22

How high schools can help in admissions, Simon J. Gormley, 75:24

Responses to 'Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions,' 76:4

Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, Warren W. Willingham, 76:6

Is the nonresident student being treated fairly?, Robert F. Carbone, 76:22

News items:

Midwest colleges get help in assessing foreign candidates, 69:4

Changes in admissions tests, 76:3

Advanced placement

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part I, Patricia Lund Casserly, 69:6

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part II, Patricia Lund Casserly, 70:18

Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, William M. Eastman, 72:27

Following through on advanced placement, D. Bruce Lockerbie, 75:25

College-level testing

This could be a new kind of college degree, Thomas S. Anthony, 74:16

News items:

How servicemen are scoring on CLEP examinations, 71:4

Nebraska University reports 800 CLEP 'consumers' yearly, 72:3

Libraries help CLEP, 75:26

Commission on Tests

The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5

Curriculum

Must our admissions system punish talented music students?, Arthur Motycka, 69:26

For the Board's English tests: What lies ahead?, Scott Elledge, 71:22

Could this financial aid plan help end student unrest?, William T. Hatch, 72:18

College curriculum design: the case for more student power, William B. Boyd, 74:7

What honor students don't like about honors programs, George N. Rainsford, 76:18
News items:
English Commission ends, 72:30

Financial aid

Do financial aid programs have a social conscience?, George A. Schlekat, 69:15
How educational borrowing affects the female student, Mary B. Cox and William D. Van Dusen, 71:28
Could this financial aid plan help end student unrest?, William T. Hatch, 72:18
Do you believe any of these 10 myths about financial aid?, Douglas R. Dickson, 73:14
Federal student loan plans: the dangers are real, George H. Hanford and James E. Nelson, 75:16
Is the nonresident student being treated fairly?, Robert F. Carbone, 76:22
News items:
CSSA elects four to Committee, 70:31
Federal student-aid outlook for next year: Bleak!, 71:3
Harrison elected CSSA chairman, members approve new bylaws, 74:5

Guidance

How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss, William T. Allen Jr., 70:15
A review of the 1967-68 research in the school-to-college transition, Stanley H. Cramer and Richard R. Stevic, 70:23
Admissions records aren't legally confidential, Maine court rules, 71:21
Can computers make guidance decisions for students?, Martin R. Katz, 72:13
An unseemly, desperate process, Donald R. Nickerson, 72:26
Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, William M. Eastman, 72:27
The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5
From college to high school: How to give feedback on students' progress, Lehymann F. Robinson, 73:19
A review of 1968-69 research on the transition from school to college, Stanley H. Cramer and Richard R. Stevic, 73:22
Will the real guidance counselor please stand up!, Dale Tillery, 74:17
News items:
Progress report on the new College Handbook, 69:4
Two long-range plans offered for Board members' review, 70:3
New College Handbook is now available, 73:3

International education

In Britain: An admissions clearinghouse plan that actually works, Geoffrey R. Thrush, 69:21
The democratization of education—a world-wide revolution, Frank Bowles, 73:11

Junior/Community colleges

Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, Warren W. Willingham, 76:6
News items:
Junior college CCP program to become operational, 70:30
How the musical-college game is growing, 71:3

Minority/Poverty students

Michigan State's search for more Negro students, Gordon A. Sabine, 69:11
A new use for the SAT: helping salvage potential dropouts, John W. Snyder, 70:5
Designing an aural aptitude test for Negroes: an experiment that failed, Ronald P. Carver, 70:10
It's not a replica of the white agenda, Preston R. Wilcox, 71:6
What we mean by the black university, Edgar F. Beckham, 71:10
The role we want for black art, Jeff Donaldson, 71:15
Seven proposals for black-directed change, Sidney F. Walton Jr., 71:18
Mexican Americans: How the schools have failed them, Thomas P. Carter, 75:5
Responses to 'Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions,' 76:4
Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, Warren W. Willingham, 76:6
News items:
Board will compile registries of six cities' ghetto students, 69:3
Preliminary report from Project Access, 71:4
Fee waiver program begins, 73:31
Testing of minority/poverty students a meeting issue, 74:4
Minority/poverty advisory panel named by Board, 75:3
Project Access rosters available to colleges, 76:3

Miscellaneous

Higher education in the 70's: How strait the gate?, F. Champion Ward, 74:11
News items:
Members approve new bylaws, 70:30
O'Connell new Board chairman, 70:31
President Pearson resigns; trustees seek a successor, 72:3
O'Hearne appointed director of Board office in Southwest, 72:30
Robert L. Brenner dies, 73:3
Stephen J. Wright joins Board, 73:31
Arland F. Christ-Janer named College Board president, 74:3
College Board, CSSA hold annual meetings in New York, 74:3
Prentice elected vice chairman, 74:23
A subregional office, 76:3

Research in education

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part I, Patricia Lund Casserly, 69:6
Designing an aural aptitude test for Negroes: an experiment that failed, Ronald P. Carver, 70:10
What college students say about Advanced Placement—part II, Patricia Lund Casserly, 70:18
A review of the 1967-68 research in the school-to-college transition, Stanley H. Cramer and Richard R. Stevic, 70:23
How educational borrowing affects the female student, Mary B. Cox and William D. Van Dusen, 71:28
Transfer students: Who's moving from where to where, and what determines who's admitted?, Warren W. Willingham and Nurhan Findikyan, 72:4
Can computers make guidance decisions for students?, Martin R. Katz, 72:13
A review of 1968-69 research on the transition from school to college, Stanley H. Cramer and Richard R. Stevic, 73:22
Will the real guidance counselor please stand up!, Dale Tillery, 74:17
Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, Warren W. Willingham, 76:6
Is the nonresident student being treated fairly?, Robert F. Carbone, 76:22
How ten years of change affected one college environment, Frederick B. Rowe, 76:28

Student attitudes

What college students say about Advanced Placement—part I, Patricia Lund Casserly, 69:6
What college students say about Advanced Placement—part II, Patricia Lund Casserly, 70:18
Could this financial aid plan help end student unrest?, William T. Hatch, 72:18
What honor students don't like about honors programs, George N. Rainsford, 76:18
How ten years of change affected one college environment, Frederick B. Rowe, 76:28

Testing

A new use for the SAT: helping salvage potential dropouts, John W. Snyder, 70:5
Designing an aural aptitude test for Negroes: an experiment that failed, Ronald P. Carver, 70:10
For the Board's English tests: What lies ahead?, Scott Elledge, 71:22
The principle of symmetry in college choice, James S. Coleman, 73:5
News items:
At last! A 500 SAT score proves to be an average of something, 71:4
"Composite" reading-listening Achievement Tests in foreign languages set for 1970-71, 74:5

Authors

Agnew, Spiro T., Spiro T. Agnew on college admissions, 75:12
Allen, William T. Jr., How to keep admissions interviews from being a total loss, 70:15
Anthony, Thomas S., This could be a new kind of college degree, 74:16
Beckham, Edgar F., What we mean by the black university, 71:10
Bowles, Frank, The democratization of education—a world-wide revolution, 73:11
Boyd, William B., College curriculum design: the case for more student power, 74:7
Carbone, Robert F., Is the nonresident student being treated fairly?, 76:22
Carter, Thomas P., Mexican Americans: How the schools have failed them, 75:5
Carver, Ronald P., Designing an aural aptitude test for Negroes: an experiment that failed, 70:10
Casserly, Patricia Lund, What college students say about Advanced Placement—part I, 69:6
Casserly, Patricia Lund, What college students say about Advanced Placement—part II, 70:18
Coleman, James S., The principle of symmetry in college choice, 73:5
Cox, Mary B. (with William D. Van Dusen), How educational borrowing affects the female student, 71:28
Cramer, Stanley H. (with Richard R. Stevic), A review of 1967-68 research in the school-to-college transition, 70:23
Cramer, Stanley H. (with Richard R. Stevic), A review of 1968-69 research on the transition from school to college, 73:22
Dickson, Douglas R., Do you believe any of these 10 myths about financial aid?, 73:14
Donaldson, Jeff, The role we want for black art, 71:15
Eastman, William M., Several proposals for sounder freshman placement, 72:27
Elledge, Scott, For the Board's English tests: what lies ahead?, 71:22
Findikyan, Nurhan (with Warren W. Willingham), Transfer students: Who's moving from where to where, and what determines who's admitted?, 72:4
Gormley, Simon J., How high schools can help in admissions, 75:24
Hanford, George H. (with James E. Nelson), Federal student loan plans: the dangers are real, 75:16
Hatch William T., Could this financial aid plan help end student unrest?, 72:18
Katz, Martin R., Can computers make guidance decisions for students?, 72:13
Livesey, Herbert B., Is the admissions process really so selective?, 75:22
Lockerbie, D. Bruce, Following through on Advanced Placement, 75:25
Mocham, Richard W., A call to college presidents: Please put an end to the admissions process rat race!, 74:14
Motycka, Arthur, Must our admissions system punish talented music students?, 69:26
Nelson, James E. (with George H. Hanford), Federal student loan plans: the dangers are real, 75:16
Nickerson, Donald R., An unseemly, desperate process, 72:26
Rainsford, George N., What honor students don't like about honors programs, 76:18
Robinson, Lehymann F., From college to high school: How to give feedback on students' progress, 73:19
Rowe, Frederick B., How ten years of change affected one college environment, 76:28
Sabine, Gordon A., Michigan State's search for more Negro students, 69:11
Schlekat, George A., Do financial aid programs have a social conscience?, 69:15
Snyder, John W., A new use for the SAT: helping salvage potential dropouts, 70:5
Stevic, Richard R. (with Stanley H. Cramer), A review of 1967-68 research in the school-to-college transition, 70:23
Stevic, Richard R. (with Stanley H. Cramer), A review of 1968-69 research in the school-to-college transition, 73:22
Thrush, Geoffrey R., In Britain: An admissions clearinghouse plan that actually works, 69:21
Tillery, Dale, Will the real guidance counselor please stand up!, 74:17
Van Dusen, William D. (with Mary B. Cox), How educational borrowing affects the female student, 71:28
Walton, Sidney F. Jr., Seven proposals for black-directed change, 71:18
Ward, F. Champion, Higher education in the 70's: how strait the gait?, 74:11
Wilcox, Preston R., It's not a replica of the white agenda, 71:6
Willingham, Warren W., Free-access colleges: where they are and whom they serve, 76:6
Willingham, Warren W. (with Nurhan Findikyan), Transfer students: Who's moving from where to where, and what determines who's admitted?, 72:4